Heretofore the duty on canned pineopples has been one cent a pound. plus 35 per cent ad valorem, sufficient to protect the Hawaiian packers from ompetition from Singapore and the West Indies, except in the cheaper grades of goods. Under this interpretation of the law canned pineapples have been rated as fruit preserved. Under the decision of the court, canned pineapple will be admitted under the same rate as pineapple preserved in its own juice wihout any added sugar. The rate on that article is only 25 per ent ad valorem, without any specific duty on the weight of the goods. The value of Singapore pineapple at the point of shipment is very low and accordingly the duty will be but little to Singapore packers, and therefore affords but little protection to the Hawanan packers. The difference will be about 60 cents a case.

TARIFF REVISION.

Since the last Hawaiian mail left here, over a week ago, there has been another tremendous flurry over tariff revision. The President renewed his sion would be to secure railroad rate measure." legislation and that tariff legislation was a secondary consideration with him. There appeared more and more uncertainty as to what was the real intention.
